About BYLC

Bangladesh Youth Leadership Center (BYLC), the country's first leadership institute, exists to build leadership skills in youth from diverse backgrounds, instill values of empathy, tolerance, and inclusiveness in them, and connect them to jobs and entrepreneurial opportunities. Our goal is to enable our alumni to have high impact in public, private, and civil sectors.

A cornerstone of BYLC's approach involves uniting youth from diverse socio-economic and educational backgrounds because effective leadership requires the capacity to embrace diversity and pluralism. Through this process of empowering young people to act on behalf of issues they care about deeply, BYLC aims to strengthen prosperity, justice, and inclusiveness in society.

Our mission

To build connections among youth from diverse backgrounds, equip them with leadership skills, and enable them to have high impact in public, private, and civil sectors

Leadership development and teaching

Our leadership training programs create changemakers by providing necessary 21st century skills to the youth of Bangladesh and instilling values of tolerance, compassion, empathy, and inclusiveness in them.

BUILDING BRIDGES THROUGH LEADERSHIP TRAINING

BYLC's ten-week long signature leadership training program is designed for H.S.C./Alim/A levels and first and second year university students. Our BBLT program uses a competitive selection process to enroll 42 students from the three different educational systems, namely English medium, Bangla medium, and madrasa, in equal numbers. The curriculum for the program draws heavily from leadership courses taught at Harvard University. The intensive training program, coupled with an experiential learning model, challenges students to critically think about leadership and apply their skills to effectuate positive change in society. In the first phase of the program, students conduct experiments, take risks, and question deeply held assumptions in the classroom. In the second phase, students have the opportunity to translate their learning into action by implementing various community service projects.

Objectives

- Create a space for students from diverse educational backgrounds to engage in meaningful dialogue and action to foster cross-cutting connections, pluralism, and inclusive leadership
- Expand participants' leadership capacity by sharpening their critical thinking, problem solving, and communication skills
- Provide participants with concrete experience in teamwork and project management, community service, and active citizenship

BUILDING BRIDGES THROUGH LEADERSHIP TRAINING JUNIOR

BYLC's month-long leadership training program is designed for secondary school students in grades 6 to 10. The program, adapted to suit the learning needs of students aged between 12 and 16, focuses on sensitizing a younger audience to the values of leadership, teamwork, community service, and active citizenship.

Taught by BYLC graduates, the program specifically targets students in secondary school to instill positive values during their formative years, so that these lessons of leadership and

Objectives

- Promote pluralism by encouraging participants from diverse backgrounds to identify common ground and develop a shared vision for effectuating positive change
- Provide participants with a concrete understanding of the challenges and rewards associated with leadership
- Create opportunities for BBLTJ graduates to further develop their leadership skills by teaching leadership to secondary school students

YOUTH LEADERSHIP SUMMIT

The three-day long Youth Leadership Summit (YLS) focused on the core challenges encountered by youth leaders, and took them on a journey of collective exploration, reflection, and networking. Through a competitive screening process, YLS brought together a diverse group of young delegates from around the world for an inter-generational dialogue with distinguished experts, innovators, and leaders in the public, private, and non-profit sectors.

The summit featured a mix of plenaries and panels on entrepreneurship, global citizenship, education and career, gender and leadership, politics, and innovation. Team-building activities and reflection sessions gave delegates opportunities to deepen their understanding of effective, meaningful, and inclusive leadership.

Objectives

- Understand the concerns and perspectives of youth regarding pressing national and global issues
- Create a common space for an inter-generational dialogue and knowledge sharing
- Facilitate leadership training for youth and enable them to take ownership of problems and exercise leadership in uncertain times
- Create a safe space for young people to engage in productive debates and discussions on current issues

BYLC RUNNING WITH PURPOSE

To observe the International Youth Day 2019, BYLC organized its Running with Purpose event in collaboration with the Ministry of Youth and Sports. The 7.5k run was held in Dhaka on August 2, 2019 and in Chattogram the very next day.

The run was aligned with the year's UN International Youth Day's theme: Transforming Education. BYLC believes that to transform education and promote lifelong learning opportunities for all, it is critical to prioritize the mental and physical well-being of students. By bringing hundreds of youth and adults to run through part of the city, the run aimed to draw attention to the necessity of physical activity in transforming education to be more enjoyable, equitable, and inclusive.

EQUALITY THROUGH DIGNITY

In observance of 16 days of activism in November, BYLC launched a digital campaign under the Equality through Dignity program initiated by our partner organization Manusher Jonno Foundation.

Through this campaign, BYLC aimed to highlight the contribution of women's unaccounted work to the family, society, and economy.

The digital campaign was organized to change social mindsets regarding women's contribution and to raise awareness on the recognition of their invisible work, thereby boosting their social, political, and economic status.
